Common Sense Parenting is a six week, twelve-hour program of instruction, videos, and role play that helps parents develop and practice skills to:

- ◆ Give clear messages to their children
- ◆ Effectively use praise
- ◆ Change behavior through the use of consequences
- ◆ Prevent and correct negative behaviors
- ◆ Help children learn self-control techniques

For parents who have children 4 years and older.

Cost of the program is $10 per person. *

Instructors in the Common Sense Parenting Program are certified by the Boys' Town National Resource and Training Center.
